TO

MY INSTRUCTOR AND FRIEND

EBERHARD SCHRADER

The Father of Assyriology in Germany

P R E F A C E .

THE plan of publication followed in this volume is that which was proposed in outline in Part I, published in 1891. I have given in the following Plates (1) about forty-five Tablets, on which the names of the scribes have either been omitted, or have been broken away ; (2) the complete correspondence of certain scribes ; and (3) the remaining Letters belonging to scribes, a part of whose correspondence had been published in previous volumes. Under this last head I have in one or two cases omitted some of the fragments, reserving them for a future Part.

It will be possible to assign many of the Letters without names to their proper places from a study of their contents, and from the style of the handwriting. This was intentionally not attempted in the present volume, because it has been my aim from the beginning to reproduce the original texts as nearly as possible, without giving restorations—except in a few places where they seemed certain—or notes of any kind. As mentioned in a previous Preface such notes, textual, philological, and historical, will find a place in later volumes of commentaries on the texts.

Nos. 440, 458, 498, 522, and 529 have been published by S. A. SMITH, and Nos. 437, 460, 462, 507, 527, 528 by WINCKLER. I am very much indebted to them for their copies, which were carefully prepared. I have not been able, however, to accept all their readings, and I may also say that I do not expect scholars to accept all mine. Many of the Tablets are broken and difficult, and in such it is often impossible to form a connected text. Again, in the Letters there are as many different handwritings as there were scribes. Hence there will be many places where scholars may differ from my readings. In the final collation of all the Letter texts, I, myself, hope to be able to decide the readings of many passages, about which there is, to my mind, still some uncertainty.

I have been hampered in this, as in all the preceding volumes, by scratchings and rubbings made upon the Tablets by my predecessors, who have often scratched signs in such a way as to make them read as they thought they should. This makes it impossible to distinguish what the original text really was, and I must add that I cannot accept all of these amended originals. Of course, such treatment of a tablet was thoughtless, to say the least of it. It is also very unfair, as it makes it almost impossible to differ from the person who has thus amended the original. All textual students are very glad, indeed, that such treatment of Tablets is not in vogue at present, and is, in fact, now impossible in the British Museum.

The Parts containing the texts of the Letters will, I have every reason to hope, appear more frequently in the future than in the past. Part VI will probably be ready in 1901.

I wish especially to acknowledge my obligations to DR. E. WALLIS BUDGE, the Keeper of the Department of Egyptian and Assyrian Antiquities, British Museum, for his courtesy, and for the great assistance which he has afforded me during my stay in London. I wish to thank him also for his kindness to my pupils, MR. PRESTON P. BRUCE and MR. CLIFTON D. GRAY, Fellows in Semitic in The University of Chicago, who have been working on the Hymns to Marduk and Shamash.

I am indebted for many valuable suggestions as to the readings of difficult passages to MR. LEONARD W. KING and MR. R. CAMPBELL THOMPSON, Assistants in the Department.

To my old teacher and friend, PROFESSOR EBERHARD SCHRADER, of the University of Berlin, I have the honour of dedicating this volume.

A., Keeper of the Department of Egyptian and Assyrian Antiquities, British Museum. 8vo. Cloth. 21s. net. [Luzac's Semitic Texts and Translation Series, Vol. I].

"Dr. BUDGE's book will be welcome as a handy reading book for advanced students of Syriac, but in the mean time the stories will be an addition to the literature of gnomes and proverbs, of which so many are found in India, and in Persian, Hebrew and Arabic, although not yet published. We are happy to say that Dr. BUDGE's new book is well edited and translated as far as we can judge". — Athenaeum.

"The worthy Syrian Bishops idea of humour may excite admiration when we hear that he collected his quips in the grey dawn of the middle ages". — Pall Mall Gazette.

"Man sieht, das Buch ist in mehr als einer Hinsicht interessant, und wir sind Budge für die Herausgabe aufrichtig dankbar. — Lit. Centralb.

"Sous le titre de Récits amusants, le célèbre polygraphe syrien Bar-hebraeus a réuni une collection de sept cent vingt-sept contes, divisés en vingt chapitres et renfermant des aphorismes, des anecdotes et des fables d'animaux ayant un caractère soit moral, soit simplement récréatif. Le livre nous était connu par quelques spécimens publiés précé-dement. M. BUDGE, qui a déjà rendu tant de services aux lettres syriaques, vient d'éditer l'ouvrage entier avec une traduction anglaise.... En tous cas, M. B. a eu raison de ne pas faire un choix et de donner l'ouvrage en son entier.... Les aphorismes, écrits dans un style concis et avec, une pointe dont la finesse n'est pas toujours sensible, présentent des difficultés de traduction dont M. B. a généralement triomphé." —

Revue Critique.

"È questo un libro singolare, appartenente ad un genere assai scarso nella letteratura siriana, quantunque così ricca, cioè a quello dell'amena letteratura. Bar Ebreo scrisse questo libro nella vecchiezza, o forse allora mise insieme e ordinò estratti che avea prese nelle lunghe letture da lui fatte, di tanto opere e così svariate.... I cultori degli studi siriani saranno assai grati al Dr. Budge per questo suo novello contributo; l'edizione per carte e per tipi è veramente bellissima." — La Cultura.

Cappeller (Carl) — A Sanskrit-English Dictionary. Based upon the St. Petersburg Lexicons. Royal 8vo. Cloth. pp. VIII, 672 [Published £ 1. 1s]. Reduced to 10s. 6d.

"Linguistic and other students should hail with satisfaction the publication of a cheap and handy Sanskrit-English Dictionary, such as is now to be found in the new English edition of Prof. CAPPELLER's Sanskrit-German 'Wörterbuch,' recently published by Messrs. Luzac. The book is well adapted to the use of beginners, as it specially deals with the text usually read in commencing Sanskrit; but it will be of use also to philological students — or such as have mastered the Nāgari character — as it includes most Vedic words, a great desideratum in many earlier dictionaries, especially such as were founded on native sources. The basis of the present work is, on the contrary, the great lexicon of Boethlingk and Roth with the addition of compound forms likely to be of service to beginners." — Athenæum.

"The English edition of Prof. CAPPELLER's Sanskrit Dictionary is some thing more than a mere translation of the German edition. It includes the vocabulary of several additional texts; many compounds have been inserted which are not given in the Petersburg lexicons; and some improvements have been made in the arrangement. The errors enumerated by the reviewer of the Academy have for the most part been corrected, though a few still remain. The book is certainly the cheapest, and, for a beginner, in some respects the best, of existing Sanskrit-English dictionaries." — Academy.

"Professor CAPPELLER furnishes the Student of Sanskrit, if not with a complete Lexicon, — for that he tells us, was not his object, — still with a handy and yet very full vocabulary of all the words occurring in the texts which are generally studied in that language. His plan is to avoid all unnecessary complications, to give each word in such a manner as to show its formation, if it is not itself a stem. It is not merely an English version of the author's Sanskrit-German Dictionary, nor merely an enlarged edition of the same; it is a new work, with a distinct plan and object of its own. We can recommend it to the Sanskrit student as a sufficient dictionary for all practical purposes, which will enable him to dispense with larger and more costly and complicated Lexicons till he has acquired a considerable proficiency in this difficult and scientific language." — Asiatic Quarterly Review.

Cool (W.) — With the Dutch in the East. An Outline of the Military Operations in Lombock, 1894, Giving also a Popular Account of the Native Characteristics, Architecture, Methods of Irrigations, Agricultural Pursuits, Folklore, Religious Customs and a History of the Introduction of Islamism and Hinduism into the Island. By Capt. W. COOL (Dutch Engineer), Knight of the Order of Orange Nassau; decorated for important War Services in the Dutch Indies; Professor at the High School of War, the Hague. Translated from the Dutch by E. J. Taylor. Illustrated by G. B. HOOVER. Late Lieut. Col. of the Dutch Indian Army; Knight of the Military Order of William; decorated for important War Services in the Dutch Indies. Roy. 8vo. Cloth. 21s.

"There are, it is to be feared, but few books published in this country from which English readers can obtain information as to the doings of the Dutch in their Eastern colonies. — For this reason we are glad that Capt. Cool's account of the Lombock expedition has been translated." — Athenæum.

"The book contains an interesting account of the Balinese and Sassak customs, and throws some light on the introduction of the Mahomedan and Hindu religions into Lombock . . . The translation by Miss E. J. Taylor is satisfactory, and some of the illustrations are excellent." — The Times.

"Lombock forms a small link in the long chain of volcanic lands . . . To folklorists and students of primitive religions it has always presented many attractive features . . . They will be much interested in the local traditions recorded in the volume before us. Miss Taylor's version deserves a word of recognition, and the general equipment of the book is creditable to the Amsterdam press. There is a good index." — Academy.

"The author not only describes the military operations, but gives a full history of Lombock and its people. Much curious information as to a land very much out of the way and little known to English readers is given. In addition the account of the actual warfare is full of incident. The book is freely illustrated." — Yorkshire Daily Post.

"This is a work which will no doubt attract considerable attention, both in the West and throughout the East. Miss Taylor has acquitted herself as a translator with rare ability and taste, and the comprehensive and excellent way in which the work is illustrated adds an additional charm to what is at once the most entertaining and most attractive chapter of Netherlands Indian history." — European Mail.

"Besides containing a great deal of information concerning this hitherto very slightly known island and its inhabitants, Captain Cool's volume is profusely and excellently illustrated... Miss Taylor's translation of it is fluent and thoroughly readable." — Glasgow Herald.

He has also presented it with a lucidity of style which will go far to render it acceptable to the reading public.... Vol. II. The Letters and Despatches of Hammurabi king of Babylon about B. C. 2250, to Sin-idinnam, King of Larsa, together with other royal and official correspondence of the same period: the Cuneiform texts edited with an Introduction and short descriptions by L. W. KING, M. A.

This volume will contain about 100 letters relating to a variety of official subjects, and their contents are of great importance for the study of the history of Babylonia, Elam and the neighbouring districts about the time of the patriarch Abraham. These letters reveal the system by which Hammurabi maintained his rule in the remote provinces of his newly acquired empire, and contain some of the orders and directions which he issued for the movements of troops, for the building of canals and waterways, for the food-supply of his capital, and for the regulation of legal tribunals. The letters of Hammurabi are the oldest Babylonian despatches extant. — Ready in June.

Vol. III. The History of the Blessed Lady Mary the Virgin, and the History of the Image of Christ, which the men of Tiberias made to mock at; the Syriac text edited, with an English translation, by E. A. WALLIS BUDGE, Litt. D., D. Lit., etc. — Ready in October.

This Life of the Virgin is the fullest known to exist in Syriac, and varies in many important particulars from the versions of which fragments have already been published. The Life has been copied from an ancient Nestorian MS., to the text of which have been added all the variants found in the XVIth century MS. in the possession of the Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain.

Vol. IV. The Letters and Despatches of Hammurabi together with other official and private correspondence of the same period, by L. W. KING, M. A.

This volume will contain a number of transliterations and translations of the texts of the 100 letters and despatches which are printed in volume 2; to these will be added indexes of proper names etc. and a List of Characters. An attempt will be made to give a description of the circumstances under which these letters were written, and short notes on points of grammar, history, etc. will be added. — In the Press.

Vol. V. The History of Rabban Hormizd by Mâr Simon, the disciple of Mâr Yôzâdhâk; the Syriac text edited, with an English translation by E. A. WALLIS BUDGE, Litt. D., D. Lit., etc.

The text describes the life of this famous Nestorian anchorite, the building of his monastery, and the struggle which went on in the VIIth century between the rival sects of Jacobites and Nestorians in Mesopotamia. This prose version of the life of Rabban Hormizd is, probably, the source from which the metrical versions were drawn; and it is of great importance for the study of the second great development of monasticism in Mesopotamia. — In the Press.

Vol. VI. Babylonian Private Letters written during the period of the First Dynasty of Babylon; the Cuneiform texts edited with Introduction and short descriptions by L. W. KING, M. A.

This volume will contain about 200 letters of a private nature which reveal the social condition of the country and incidentally throw much light upon the civilization of the period. From grammatical and lexicographical points of view these texts are of considerable importance, for they afford numerous examples of unusual words and forms of expression. — In the Press.

LUZAC'S ORIENTAL LIST.

NOTICE TO OUR READERS.

With this number we enter upon the eighth year of the publication of our «Oriental List.” Four years ago in the first number of our fourth volume we thanked our readers for the generous support we had received from various quarters, including some flattering notices in our contemporaries referring to the value of our «List”, and we now tender our thanks to an extended circle of readers. Within recent years the number of works on oriental subjects has increased enormously, and our «List” was started with the object of furnishing a record of such works which should be published at regular intervals. Our aim has therefore been to give each month a complete list of oriental books published in England, on the Continent, in the East and in America, while under the heading «Notes and News” we have endeavoured to give a faithful account of the progress made during the month in the various branches of oriental learning, literature and archaeology. The encouragement we have continuously received from the beginning of the undertaking emboldens us to believe that the «List” has really supplied a want on the part of those who from taste or profession are interested in the languages, literatures and antiquities of the East, and we therefore venture to appeal to our readers who are in the habit of consulting our «List” when making out their orders to send them to us direct.
